Fall season's worst shows

By Jacqueline Cutler
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

A few years back, Bruce Springsteen sang "57 Channels (And Nothin' On)," and as we glance at our ever-expanding television options, it often seems The Boss was right.

There are some terrific shows — "The Practice," "Friends" and "The Simpsons," to name a few — that consistently entertain. Others are so awful that one wonders if the producers have blackmailed network executives for airtime. Here, in alphabetical order, is the dishonor roll:

"The Early Show" (CBS) — Jane Clayson, a solid reporter, maintains her dignity and poise, but she and Bryant Gumbel add up to a colossal snore.

"Harsh Realm" (Fox) — Chris Carter's very expensive virtual-reality fantasy thriller was canceled after two episodes, leading to a reported rift between Mr. "X-Files" and his network.

"The Jerry Springer Show" (syndicated) — Springer alone is not to blame for the decline of Western civilization, but he's definitely a heavy contributor.

"Later Today" (NBC) — With apologies to the always-gracious Florence Henderson, this show is a dud. Following Katie Couric and Matt Lauer is no easy task, and the golly-gee attitudes of Henderson's co-hosts and the forced gaiety make this morning fare easy to skip.

"The Martin Short Show" (syndicated) — Short, a gifted comic, is a dream guest on other talk shows, but he serves as further proof that hosting one is not as easy as it looks.

"Pokemon" (syndicated) — Parents who watch in an attempt to understand the phenomenon are likely to realize it exists only to empty their wallets.

"Ryan Caulfield: Year One" (Fox) — Perhaps the title was meant to reflect how long the pilot felt. Like the aforementioned talk shows, doing a cop show must be harder than it looks.

"Suddenly Susan" (NBC) — How many awful projects can one person do and still be likable? Brooke Shields is perky and earnest and remains gorgeous, but it's not enough to keep this clunker alive.

"Thanks" (CBS) — Canceled after just six episodes, it borders on mystical as to what could have motivated network execs to say yes to a show about the Pilgrims' first winter in the new country.

"Veronica's Closet" (NBC) — Why is this still on the air? Why is Kirstie Alley now a bottle blonde? Aside from the outlandish costumes they drape on her, is anything about this show remotely funny?

We could go on — TV-movie "events" that didn't live up to their hype, series that were pulled before their premieres — but we won't keep you. It's the holiday season, you have things to do, and you might be missing something good on TV.

What happened to 'Suddenly Susan'?

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

What happened to "Suddenly Susan"? Which shows actually have already been canceled? -So Confused I Forgot to Sign This E-Mail.

As of this writing, the Brooke Shields sitcom is slated to go on indefinite hiatus soon due to weak ratings. Its future looks dim. Already canceled: "Wasteland," "Harsh Realm," "Ryan Caulfield: Year One," "Cold Feet," "Work With Me," "The Mike O'Malley Show" and — yanked before it even aired — "Manchester Prep."

Hearing the theme from "Peter Gunn" at a recent concert started me thinking of that TV show. Can you remind me who played the title character and his leading lady? -Frustrated in San Dimas, Calif.

Craig Stevens played Gunn in that 1958-61 detective drama with the haunting theme by Henry Mancini.

Pipeline

Lola Albright played his girlfriend, Edie Hart.

As a child watching TV during the '60s, I remember having a crush on the actress playing the lead part in a show called "Karen." Who was she, and what is she doing now? -Will Bennett, Orinda, Calif.

"Karen," which aired 1964-65 on NBC, marked the series debut of charming Debbie Watson, then 15, who starred as bubbly Karen Scott. The family comedy originally was part of a 90-minute sitcom block called "90 Bristol Court." The following season, Watson starred in "Tammy," based on the hit movie comedies, then did three TV movies: "Munster, Go Home" (as Marilyn), "Tammy and the Millionaire" and "The Cool Ones."

Watson apparently left acting after a 1969 guest appearance on "The Virginian." I have no information on her current whereabouts.

Brooke Shields
SUDDENLY SUSAN

And I am bound to get letters unless I mention this: Karen Valentine from "Room 222" also starred in a short-lived ABC sitcom called "Karen" in 1975.

Whatever became of Don Grady, who played Robbie on "My Three Sons"? I thought we would have seen more of him. -H.S., Englewood, Fla.

Former Mouseketeer Grady, now 55, works as a composer these days. Among many other projects, he composed the score for the 1995 miniseries "The Revolutionary War." Did you know he's the brother of Lani O'Grady (Mary) of "Eight Is Enough"?

Recently on Lifetime, we saw a movie called "The Client" based on John Grisham's book, but with JoBeth Williams as Reggie Love and a completely different story. How is that possible? -Nancy Field, Rudd, Iowa.

Simple. What you saw was taken from a 1995-96 CBS series adaptation using characters but not the plot from the book and hit feature film.

Trivia

When Bob Marley and the Wailers first toured the United States, they opened for Sly & the Family Stone. They were fired for being more popular.

Robert Urich ("Spenser: For Hire") got his big break playing Burt Reynolds' sibling in a play. Reynolds let him stay at his home.

There have been more than 10 feature films, three movies and one miniseries adaptation of the Charles Dickens novel Oliver Twist.

In 1914, Joseph Kennedy and Rose Fitzgerald married in a private ceremony in the Archbishop of Boston's private chapel.

There have been more than 300 movies about Christmas and Santa Claus, but just 24 films about Easter and its famous bunny.

The physics of Christmas

By John Crook
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Feature story

Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer
Had a very shiny nose.
And if you ever saw it,
You would even say he appears to have a parasitic infection of the upper respiratory system.

OK, OK, maybe those lyrics aren't destined to go down in holiday history, but you may well regard "Rudolph" and other yuletide traditions in a new light after seeing "The Science of Christmas."

Based on Roger Highfield's popular book "The Physics of Christmas: From the Aerodynamics of Reindeer to the Thermodynamics of Turkey," the one-hour special premieres Wednesday, Dec. 22, on Discovery Channel.

If the whole project sounds like something dreamed up by whimsy-impaired poker faces in white lab coats, guess again: This lighthearted hour doesn't take itself too seriously and isn't afraid to tackle some of the tough questions, such as how Santa manages to make deliveries to nearly 842 million homes in a single night. (Answer: a space-time warp. Well, duh!).

As for Rudolph and his scarlet schnozz, the special journeys all the way to Cape Nome, Alaska — 60 miles south of the Arctic Circle — to get an expert opinion from Greg Finstad, head of the reindeer research program at the University of Alaska in Fairbanks.

Finstad acknowledges that there could be a perfectly mundane explanation for Rudolph's rosy nose.

"If I had to make a guess, actually, I'd say it's probably sunburn," he says with a shrug. "A reindeer's nose is lightly pigmented, and with all the ultraviolet light bouncing off the snow, (sunburn is likely)."

A neat explanation. Perhaps a little too neat?

It turns out that a reindeer nose poses a welcome haven for a number of parasites wanting to get out of the cold. If those parasites congregate in sufficient numbers, a red discoloration results, followed by — you'd better sit down for this, readers.

"Reindeer usually are very gregarious animals, but if there is something different about another reindeer, whether it's sick or possibly has a red nose, they like to exclude that animal from the group," Finstad reveals.

In other words, a red-nosed reindeer wouldn't be allowed to join in any reindeer games. Coincidence? You be the judge.

And that's not the only lid Finstad blows off the reindeer roster of holiday lore. Blame it on a patriarchal society if you will, but you know all those antlered animals drawing Santa's sleigh? They're really lady reindeer! Either that, or Comet, Cupid and company are a bunch of female impersonators.

As Finstad explains, by the time Christmas rolls around, male reindeer have spent so much time fighting and, um, loving that their exhausted antlers finally fall off. Females, however, retain their antlers to protect their small, vulnerable offspring. So if Santa's reindeer have antlers at Christmas, well, you don't need a rocket scientist to do the math.

Happily, however, "The Science of Christmas" does, in fact, have a rocket scientist — specifically, the wonderfully named Dr. Robert Frisbee of the Jet Propulsion Laboratory in Pasadena, Calif. — on hand to explain the mathematics of correctly roasting a Christmas turkey. Sound loony? Don't bet on it.

"(The field of) thermodynamics deals with how heat and energy interact with different materials," Frisbee explains. "In terms of cooking and baking, that's very important."

Walking the viewer through a mathematical formula that's part Steven Hawking and part Julia Child, Frisbee arrives at the correct formula for cooking your holiday entree: Cooking time equals the mass of the turkey raised to the 2/3 power.

Or you can cook for 20 minutes a pound.

SUNDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: Babe
6 P.M. ON ABC

A piglet's charming tale leads from barnyard to sheepfold in this 1995 sleeper hit. Joining the livestock on a New Zealand farm, Babe the pig is adopted by a maternal sheep dog and makes friends with an old ewe, while the goose mistreats him and the cat is downright unfriendly. A candidate for Christmas dinner, Babe proves he is much too good to eat. Jim Henson's Creature Shop was responsible for the film's convincing talking-animal effects. James Cromwell stars.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

He is the most important figure in Western history. His millions of followers believe he still lives; even nonbelievers will concede his influence certainly does. But almost nothing is known of his life on Earth. "The Unknown Jesus" is an ambitious attempt to dig up the truth on the man we call Christ — which, incidentally, wasn't his real name. Historians and other scholars share their latest theories about Jesus' life in this two-hour profile.

Snoops
8 P.M. ON ABC

Dana and Glenn (Paula Marshall, Gina Gershon) may have a murderer on their hands in "A Criminal Mind." He's one of their clients, who reveals under hypnosis where a dead body can be found, but he claims he didn't do the deed and doesn't even know the victim.

Babe
BABE

Movie: Miracle on the 17th Green
8 P.M. ON CBS

The loss of his job at Christmastime gives a jaded executive (Robert Urich) a chance to follow his dream of playing pro golf. When he wins a spot on the senior tour, his wife (Meredith Baxter) wonders what will happen to the family and her struggling daycare center while he's off playing. But she discovers strengths and skills she didn't know she had, while absence teaches him the meaning of family. Ernie Hudson ("Ghostbusters," "The Hand That Rocks the Cradle") also stars.

The X-Files
8 P.M. ON FOX

Mulder and Scully (David Duchovny, Gillian Anderson) are in search of a different kind of Christmas spirit when they spend Dec. 24 staking out a house alleged to be haunted. Instead of the ghosts of Christmas past, present and future, they find the place occupied by a married couple with a strange secret.

Stephen King — Master of Macabre
9 P.M. ON TLC

The author of "Carrie," "The Shining," "Misery" and other scary tales gives fans a rare glimpse of his private world in this hourlong profile. From his home state of Maine, King talks about the childhood memories that inspired many of his books. The special is liberally illustrated with clips from the film adaptations of King's writings and peppered with comments from their directors and actors.

Tribune cancels Simmons

By Lorri Antosz Benson
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

The holidays are upon us, and some talk show hosts are hoping to stay on the air for Christmas.

Many observed last month's early cancellation of "Dream Maker," hosted by Richard Simmons, with anxious eyes, knowing the same fate could easily await them. "Dream Maker" was given the obligatory 13 weeks before syndicator Tribune pulled out, and the boom was lowered two days before Thanksgiving. So much for happy holidays.

Of all the new shows, "Dream Maker "probably cost the most in start-up fees. Simmons says the show was the most expensive on daytime. On the one hand, you can see why the low ratings "Dream Maker" garnered made Tribune want to cut its losses. On the other hand, after spending all those greenbacks to get the show up and running, 13 weeks seems like a short trial period.

In any case, Simmons' staff of 70 was left high and dry for the holidays. Before the launch of the show, Simmons said, "I'd like to be Santa Claus, with the sleigh and reindeer, and give people gifts, but there's only one Santa Claus."

Talk the Talk

Simmons must wish Santa Claus had a gift for him now — a "Dream Maker" renewal in his stocking.

Other shows holding their collective breath this holiday include "Forgive or Forget," "The Martin Short Show," "Dr. Joy Browne" and "Leeza." They all know the ax can fall quickly; Tribune was still showing support for "Dream Maker" as late as the first part of November.

Former talk host Geraldo Rivera will be back under the mistletoe with his wife, C.C., this Christmas. The latest word is the recently separated couple reconciled their differences. Insiders say Rivera, whose infidelities have been documented even in his own autobiography, vowed to be faithful to C.C., and she is giving him another chance.

Mother Love, host of "Forgive or Forget," is living up to her name with a toy drive she conducts each December as a personal gesture for the children of Harlem.

And don't forget, ladies, you only have until Dec. 31 to be among the Rosie O'Donnell viewers who send proof of a mammogram to GM Concept Cure, "Don't Be a Boob," P.O. Box 65695, Salt Lake City, UT 84165.

Richard Simmons

The first 130,000 entrants receive a "Don't Be a Boob" T-shirt from O'Donnell.

All participants are placed in a sweepstakes to win a Chevy Venture Warner Bros. Edition minivan.

Wouldn't that be a great way to end the century?

Kennedy weddings

Promise unfulfilled.

To some, it's a recurring theme running through the Kennedy family.

True, they weathered their share of tragedies, but a new Lifetime special proves the Kennedys had more than their share of triumphs, too.

"Weddings of a Lifetime XVII: Kennedy Weddings," airing Monday, Dec. 20, takes a refreshing look at the matrimonial side of the family many consider to be the U.S. version of royalty.

"It's the Kennedy family story told through all the happy events in their lives," co-executive producer Jay Mulvaney says, commenting on their key to survival. "They focus their attention on these happy events, and that's what helps them get through the horrible times. They are real people, just as we are, with real feelings and aspirations."

From Rose Fitzgerald and Joe Kennedy's 1914 nuptials up through the joining of John F. Kennedy Jr. and Carolyn Bessette in 1996, still photos, home movies and interviews paint the pictures behind the gala and sometimes private events surrounding three generations of Kennedys.

The King of Queens
7 P.M. ON CBS

In the encore of "Noel Cowards," Arthur (Jerry Stiller) comes up with what he thinks will be the perfect Christmas gift for Doug and Carrie (Kevin James, Leah Remini): a way to solve their continuing car trouble. But his cure turns out to be worse than the disease, giving new meaning to the word "backfire." Larry Romano also stars.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

As Jodie Foster brings a new adaptation of her life to the screen, "Anna and the King: The True Story of Anna Leonowens" remembers the real Anna. After the death of the husband whom she had defiantly wed for love, she moved to Siam to teach the children of the king, a man open to Western ideas in every area but one: women. The movies show her sparring with the king on that issue, but this profile reveals that she didn't stop there. After leaving Siam, she spent the rest of her long life speaking out for social reforms.

Weddings of a Lifetime XVII: Kennedy Weddings
7 P.M. ON LIFE

Photos, home movies and eyewitness interviews revisit 33 nuptial days, spanning more than eight decades, in America's "royal" family — from Joe and Rose to Jack and Jackie and John-John and Carolyn. The special is more than just "wedding styles of the rich and famous"; it's a bittersweet experience to watch so many of these couples on their happiest days and know that tragedy will cut that happiness short.

VERONICA'S CLOSET

Veronica's Closet
7:30 P.M. ON NBC

The encore of the season premiere, "Veronica's New Boss," revisits the day that Ronnie (Kirstie Alley), all psyched to pick up where she left off with Alec, discovers that (a) he's dead, and (b) the sweet young thing with whom he had a final fling is now majority owner of the Closet.

NFL Football
8 P.M. ON ABC

It will be a dogfight to the end in the NFC Central as four teams vie for a playoff spot. Tonight, two of those teams, the Minnesota Vikings and the Green Bay Packers, look to get a leg up on the competition.

Ally McBeal
8 P.M. ON FOX

It may be chilly outside, but the atmosphere at the firm's holiday party gets downright steamy as Ally and Renee (Calista Flockhart, Lisa Nicole Carson) compete to see who can sing the sexiest Christmas song. And talk about finding the true meaning of Christmas; Elaine (Jane Krakowski) discovers a real, live infant in the manger of a nativity scene and wants to adopt the baby, with a little help from Ally and Cage (Peter MacNicol). Greg Germann also stars in "Blue Christmas."

TUESDAY'S BEST BETS

Spin City
7 P.M. ON ABC

In "Christmas 1999," Mike (Michael J. Fox) is ready to party like it's — well, you know. But when he invites Caitlin (Heather Locklear) to his Christmas bash and she actually accepts, he sees a chance for romance and uninvites the other guests. Then Caitlin shows up with another guy in tow, and Mike has to find a houseful of guests ... fast. Barry Bostwick also stars.

Just Shoot Me
7 P.M. ON NBC

Kelsey Grammer narrates a delightful spoof of Dr. Seuss' Grinch story, with Dennis (David Spade) as the Santa-suited seasonal saboteur who tries to ruin Christmas for the Whos — er, his co-workers — when he sees the gift he's getting from them. "How the Finch Stole Christmas" also includes a nod to "A Charlie Brown Christmas," with Elliott (Enrico Colantoni) as custodian of the little tree that could, and to recent toy crazes, as Jack (George Segal) buys out the city's whole supply of the year's hottest doll.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

The encore of "Tom Hanks: Hollywood's Golden Boy" profiles the hot young actor who has certainly come a long way from "Bosom Buddies." He won an impressive two best actor Oscars in a row for "Philadelphia" and "Forrest Gump" and another nomination for "Saving Private Ryan." Denzel Washington and Meg Ryan are among the famous faces interviewed for this 1997 profile.

David Spade
JUST SHOOT ME

Radio City: The Story Behind the Showplace
7 P.M. ON AMC

Lauren Bacall hosts a journey through the storied past of New York's most famous theater, Radio City Music Hall, which recently reopened after a major face lift. The hour features rare footage of the hall's first opening and interviews with designers and performers, including the Rockettes.

3rd Rock From the Sun
7:30 P.M. ON NBC

In the encore of "Dick for Tat," Dick (John Lithgow) is horrified to learn that Mary (Jane Curtin) once had a fling with his rival, Strudwick (Ron West). Even though it happened before he met her, he feels compelled to get even by doing likewise with Strudwick's wife (Kim Johnston Ulrich, "Passions").

Sports Night
8:30 P.M. ON ABC

In "The Reunion," the holiday spirit works in strange and mysterious ways among the "Sports Night" staff, especially on Dan (Josh Charles), who has the urge to go to church despite the fact that he's Jewish. In the spirit of "good will to men," Dana (Felicity Huffman) attempts to forgive her brother for using steroids. Casey (Peter Krause) racks his brains to please Isaac (Robert Guillaume) in the secret Santa gift exchange.

Wednesday's Best Bets

Cosby
7 P.M. ON CBS

Hilton and Pauline's (Bill Cosby, Madeline Kahn) friend Max (Chip Zien), proprietor of a struggling bookstore, announces he's seriously considering a fried chicken franchise's offer to buy him out. The thought of losing poetry to poultry has Pauline and Ruth (Phylicia Rashad) crying "foul." Their two-birds-with-one-stone solution is to annex the store, thereby keeping a competing eatery out and bringing some culture to the cafe.

Beverly Hills, 90210
7 P.M. ON FOX

New parents Steve and Janet (Ian Ziering, Lindsay Price) are going all out to create a special first Christmas for their baby — even though the little one is a bit young yet to appreciate it. But the ongoing tension between the couple and Janet's parents (James Shigeta, Leslie Ishii) is a Grinch that threatens to scuttle their good intentions.

Adventures in Time: The National Geographic Millennium Special
7 P.M. ON NBC

Starting millions of years in the past and finishing up five decades into the future, this is the most ambitious "National Geographic" special ever. Lavishly illustrated with footage from the "Geographic" film vault and packed with an incredible array of fun facts, it traces the world's history and ours, ending with some interesting speculations on the future of human evolution. John Lithgow narrates.

ADVENTURES IN TIME

Movie: The Christmas Wish
8 P.M. ON CBS

When a young man returns to his hometown to revitalize his deceased grandfather's business, he gets an unusual request from his grandmother: Find out the identity of Lillian, the mysterious woman mentioned in her late husband's journals. His search leads him to a new knowledge of himself — and his family.

Investigative Reports
8 P.M. ON A&E

At 2,000 pounds, you'd think the kouprey — a Cambodian wild ox — would be easy to find. But no scientist has gotten a close-up look at one in 40 years. It's one of Earth's most elusive animals, and it lives in one of the East's most secretive lands. "In Search of the Kouprey" follows an expedition from Cambodia's Wildlife Protection Office into one of the country's remotest areas, hoping for at least a passing glimpse of the great beast.

The Science of Christmas
8 P.M. ON DISC

Hard science lightened by a healthy helping of whimsy is used to tackle those hard-to-answer questions about this magical season. The proper temperature for candy canes and an astronomical explanation for the Star of Bethlehem are revealed, and parents are given some much-needed data about Santa. The special is based on Roger Highfield's book "The Physics of Christmas: From the Aerodynamics of Reindeer to the Thermodynamics of Turkey."

The American Red Cross Holiday Music Spectacular

Movie: It's a Wonderful Life
7 P.M. ON NBC

Time's running out if you haven't had your fix of this holiday perennial. James Stewart stars as George Bailey, a small-town businessman facing financial ruin who wishes he'd never been born. An apprentice angel earns his wings by showing George just what a difference his seemingly insignificant life has made.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

"Beethoven: The Sound and the Fury" profiles Ludwig van Beethoven, the heaven-storming composer whose symphonies and countless other works revolutionized the world of music in the late 18th and early 19th centuries. THE AMERICAN RED CROSS HOLIDAY MUSIC SPECTACULAR

Movie: Scrooged
7 P.M. ON HBO

In this modern adaptation of Charles Dickens' tale, the Ebenezer Scrooge character is Frank Cross (Bill Murray), a greedy TV executive who figures since he hates Christmas, no one else should enjoy it. But his outlook is changed after a visit from (surprise!) three ghosts on Christmas Eve. Directed by Richard Donner, the 1988 comedy also stars David Johansen, Karen Allen, John Forsythe, Carol Kane and Alfre Woodard.

The World's Funniest!
8 P.M. ON FOX

A special Christmas Eve outing of the video clip show includes footage of some unconventional Santas, including a dog dressed as Kriss Kringle and a jolly old elf who's more naughty than nice, as evidenced by his habit of lifting goodies from stores and shoppers' bags. There's also a young Christmas recital participant who commits a minor blasphemy when he tires of holding baby Jesus. James Brown hosts.

The Detroit Lions will need tunnel vision in order to avoid a letdown today against the Denver Broncos. The Broncos are having a down year, and the Lions may be tempted to look ahead to next week's game at Minnesota, a contest that could decide the NFC Central winner. Whether its Charlie Batch or Gus Frerotte under center, the Lions have been one of the league's biggest surprises, using quality receivers such as Germane Crowell and Johnnie Morton to ignite the offense. Injuries have decimated the Broncos this season, but they remain a dangerous and competitive team. Brian Griese, in his second season, has shown coach Mike Shanahan he has the tools to be the Broncos quarterback of the future.

The Walt Disney World Very Merry Christmas Parade
7 P.M. ON ABC

In previous years, families had to interrupt their gift unwrapping and meal preparing to watch this yuletide extravaganza. This year, you can give it your full attention as you unwind from the busy holiday; ABC is taping the parade and airing it in prime time. Actors Mitchell Ryan and Susan Sullivan (Greg's folks from "Dharma & Greg") host the two-hour show.

Early Edition
7 P.M. ON CBS

An encore of "Christmas," the show's 1996 holiday episode, provides a treat for fans of Chuck (Fisher Stevens). Jailed on a scofflaw charge on Christmas Eve, he meets a fellow prisoner who insists he's the real Santa Claus. He agrees to help the man escape and get back to work delivering presents. Gary's (Kyle Chandler) Christmas crisis involves a teddy bear with a bomb inside that's set to go off at a crowded skating rink. M. Emmet Walsh guest stars.

The Simpsons/The PJs/ Futurama/King of the Hill
7 P.M. ON FOX

If the preholiday rush made you miss your favorite animated sitcom's Christmas episode, here's another chance to catch 'em all. In "The Grift of the Magi," a company uses the children of Springfield to develop the ultimate toy. Gary Coleman, Tim Robbins and Joe Mantegna supply guest voices. Next, Thurgood (voice of Eddie Murphy) alienates the neighbors by becoming a repo man to make money for Muriel's gift in "How the Super Stoled Christmas." Then John Goodman gives voice to the scary Y3K incarnation of Santa in "Xmas Story." Finally, Hank and Dale try to cheer up a depressed Bill in "Pretty, Pretty Dresses."

Movie: King of Kings
7 P.M. ON TBS

After the chaos of unwrapping, gorging and socializing, sit the family down for this reminder of the reason for the season. Director Nicholas Ray's 1961 biography of Jesus stars Jeffrey Hunter — whom "Star Trek" fans will recognize as Capt. Christopher Pike — in the title role. Siobhan McKenna plays his mother, Mary.
